Preventing violence at school: understanding for action

9-15 October 2016 – Strasbourg (France) – Languages: English & French – 490 €

Organiser: GERFEC / ELICIT-PLUS

Contact: rmgerfec@orange.fr

Preventing violence in school is a daily worry for education staff. Such a subject is more than ever a priority and affects society as a whole. School has to face new situations. Through the European programme “Elicit-Plus”, we propose a training course which will enable teachers and educational staff, with the help of experts, to share their practices, to understand the interests involved in violent situations and to develop adequate approaches for a better “living together” atmosphere.

Towards effective communication in the multicultural environment of European Schools

9-15 October 2016 – Hungary – Language: English – 490 €

Organiser: TEE-AEDE / ELICIT-PLUS

Contact: simone.moroz@gmail.com

The participants will:

- increase their knowledge of European Union;
- acquire awareness of European Citizenship and European Identity;
- develop their understanding of European values;
- develop skills to transfer the knowledge to their students;
- be able to recognize and explain the complexity of what Europe is;
- learn to promote European projects in their schools.

Developing Awareness of the EU: our Present and our Future

16-23 October 2016 – Kecskemét (Hungary) – Language: English – 490 €

Organiser: KEFO / ELICIT-PLUS

Contact: dosa.eszter@rh.kefo.hu

The aim of the course is to provide participants with relevant knowledge to understand the history of Europe and the conditions of the birth of the European Union so that they can feel the responsibility for our common present and future.

Participants will gain competence in developing this knowledge continuously and in building their confidence in Europe into their teaching activities and all kinds of educational processes

Discussing European Dilemmas in a global context in the Classroom

22-29 October 2016 – The Hague (The Netherlands) – Language: English – 490 €

Organiser: AEDE-NL / INTERPRIMAIR / ELICIT-PLUS

Contact: info@aede.nl

Website: www.elicitplus.aede.nl

Being a European Citizen requires more than learning the facts. From this starting point we provide:

- seven days of inspiration filled with discussions and debates learning how to coach students in developing skills and attitudes in this globalized world
- learning how Dutch schools teach democracy, participation and identity as the core of European Citizenship in an international context - and in the light of Dutch Governmental guidelines
- by experiencing the 21-century skills of Learning and Innovation: Critical Thinking, Communication, Collaboration and Creativity

- facing the dilemmas on Migration & Human Rights, Crime & Justice, Democracy & Citizenship
- study visits to schools, the Peace Palace and Houses of Parliament in The Hague and EIC Mainport in the Harbour of Rotterdam
